“Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” -Romans 5:1
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On behalf of all the parish priests and staff, I extend to you our best wishes for a very Happy Easter! We are so grateful to all whose participation in any way helps to make our celebrations as a community of faith so uplifting! May this day be another opportunity to celebrate God’s wonderful love for you and for us all!

+++

Thank you to all who have made and continue to make their pledges to the 2010 Archbishop’s Annual Appeal. As of March 22nd, our pledge total has risen to $179,561.50, which is over 78.5% of our stretch goal of $228,629.50. If you have not done so, please remember to return your completed pledge envelope either in the collection basket or bring it to the rectory office, or return it in the mail directly to the Archdiocese. I count on every family to participate in some way this year, to help us meet or exceed our stretch goal once again. Your support of this appeal is part of your sacrificial tithe. Together, let us continue to make a difference in our archdiocese and in our parish!

Our Neocatechumenal Community will begin its next Catechesis on Monday, April 12, at 8pm in the Lower Church. This ten week series of catecheses, to be held each Monday and Thursday evening, provides an opportunity to reflect on one’s Catholic Faith through the witness of others’ experiences in relation to the doctrines of our Faith, and an invitation to enter more deeply into a committed living out of that Faith. Parish members of the team will be speaking briefly at all of the Masses next weekend to invite anyone interested. If you have been looking to make some deeper connections, or if you know of someone who might benefit from a renewed awareness of their Catholic Faith, you are encouraged to come and invite others to come to be part of this Catechesis.

Msgr. Richard Arnhols

Easter Sunday Meditation

Jesus Christ, who was dead and is risen, is the reason for all our celebrations this Easter. In the first reading from Acts, a profoundly different Peter is featured as preaching the kerygma in the home of Cornelius. Prior to the Christ-event, Peter would not have agreed to enter the home of a gentile and accept the hospitality he offered. But the barriers that had formerly separated Jew from gentile were rendered unnecessary by the universal and saving embrace of the crucified and risen Jesus. Peter beckons us to follow his example and accept the grace of transformation. Who have we shut out of our lives? Have we written anyone off as unsalvageable? The reality of Easter compels us to look at others with God’s eyes and accept them.

In today’s second reading, Paul compares the challenge of living as Easter people to the traditional preparations for Jewish Passover. Clear out the old yeast of malice and wickedness, he says, to make room for sincerity and truth. This is the sort of transformation that will witness eloquently to the power of grace to bring about conversion. What should we sweep out of our hearts to make more room for God and goodness? What might we surrender to make ourselves more sensitive to others’ needs and burdens?

The Gospel invites us to stand before the empty tomb and remember that the Christ-event did not end on the cross or in the grave. Death was not God’s final word. It was but a temporary syllable to be hushed as God’s power replaced it with cries of glory and new life. While the earliest witnesses to the empty tomb grappled with its meaning, the appearances of the risen Jesus helped to clarify the mystery. We remember those first believers whose faithful testimony concerning Jesus has opened the way for us to believe. As we mark the resurrection of Jesus, a war-weary world awaits our testimony as well. Our lives should reflect the joy and hopefulness we have in Christ. Jesus lives! That pronouncement does not immunize believers from evil, but it does bless us with strength to live full and faithful lives now, even as it beckons us into the future, where we will remain devoted to Jesus until He comes again!

For Those Whose Children Have Died

There is no loss like that of one’s child. Parents whose children have died will experience grief that is longer, harder and more complicated than other bereaved people. The needs of those who have suffered the loss of a child are special. One of these needs is to share the pain with others who have experienced this very difficult kind of grief. In an effort to offer another step in the ongoing process of healing, the Office of Family Life Ministries has planned a Eucharistic Liturgy for those whose children have died.

Friday, May 7, 2010 ~ 7:30pm

Notre Dame R. C. Church
359 Central Ave., North Caldwell, NJ 07006

A personal witness will be offered as the name of each child is read during the liturgy. Pre-registration is requested. Please call the Office of Family Life Ministries at 973-497-4327.
